

Governor's Daily News Summary

January 12, 2001

The Clarion Ledger

Senate OKs state flag vote Flag: 10 lawmakers object to making 1894 flag 'historical'

Court: JSU law school not needed

Use of tobacco money praised

Panel calling for MDOT reform MDOT: PEER sites need for professional exec

Desire to help kids read? Apply today

PEER calls for better Forestry Commission data

Editorials

Sun Herald

MDOT overhaul proposed

Senate approves flag election bill

MDOT: You don't understand

Bid to consider magnolia flag falls

Editorial: South Mississippi learns hard lessons in wetlands laws

Daily Journal

Study says Highway commission members should be appointed

State flag bill heads to Musgrove

CHARLIE LANGFORD: Let's put the proposed flag where it'll be seen

WILLIAM RASPBERRY: Don't dismiss a new flag; it has a chance

On to the polls - Flag referendum headed for Musgrove's signature

For better highways -- House task force targets DOT's structural flaws

Commercial Appeal

Provisions of flag bill alienate Senate's black bloc

Desoto Times

Natchez Democrat

Taylor: Titan cuts would be in Natchez

Economic development even more a necessity

Christian Science Monitor

California governor has new role: power guy

Philadelphia Inquirer

Op-Ed: In Mississippi, a vote on symbol of the Confederacy may surprise some people